ARE YOU NERVOUS?

Maybe There Is a Cause for It That You Can Correct.

Many who suffer from backache and weak kidneys are unnaturally irritable, fretful and nervous. Not only does constant backache "get on the nerves" but bad kidneys fail to eliminate all the uric acid from the system, and uric acid irritates the nerves, keeping one "on edge," and causing rheumatic neuralgic pains. When suffering so, try Doan's Kidney Pills, the medicine so well recommended by Monett people. Read this Monett woman's statement:

"Mrs. J. Moore, 608 Benton St., says: 'I was suffering from a steady ache in my back. I was weak and lame, and sharp twinges almost made me cry out when I bent over or straightened up. This, with frequent headaches and trouble from the kidney secretions made me nervous and discouraged and I was getting run down. I used several boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills and they rid me of the trouble. I haven't needed any for quite a while now.'"

Price 60c at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moore uses. Foster-Milburn Co. Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

ENTERTAINS AT HALLOWEEN PARTY

Miss Ethel Campbell delightfully entertained the D. O. T. club and a few friends, Tuesday evening, at a Halloween party. The decoration of the rooms was unique, Jack-o'-lanterns, corn stalks, skull, black cats and bats being used on the draperies and walls.

In the dining room the tablecloth had a startling border of black cats. A large iron pot suspended from a crane, held cider with which the guests refreshed themselves from tin cups during the evening.

For entertainment Miss Campbell had provided a number of jolly games and contests.

In a cat guessing contest, Miss Ruth Mertel was the winner and received a black cat bank. In a word contest Miss Edith Kelley was successful and was awarded an owl bank. In a contest of placing the left eye of a Jack-o'-lantern in the proper place, Miss Grace DeBrosse was successful and was given the immortal book, "Peter, Peter, Pumpkin Eater," as the prize. Lunch was served in the dining room and consisted of dainties appropriate to the season. In the center of the table a large pumpkin, held paper bats from which yellow ribbons were hanging. Each guest drew a bat, on the back of which was written the fortune of the one drawing.

The guests were Misses Ruth Bradford, Ruth Mertel, Maude Campbell, May Ryan, Vera Feist, Eleanor Nelson, Anna Jacobs, Grace DeBrosse, Lena Combs, Edith Kelley, Isabelle Kruger, Mr. and Mrs. H. M. McIntosh, Carl Kall, J. D. Buncroft, Mr. Davis, Joe Kennedy, J. D. Bounous, Franklin Combs and Alvin Floreth.

Y. M. C. A. WORK IN THE ARMY

Just what the leaders who have been at the front think of the Y. M. C. A. work among the army men is well indicated when strong endorsements can be quoted from such men as Premier David Lloyd George, executive leader of the British Empire; General Pershing, leader of the American forces in France; Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig, at the head of the British army in France and Flanders; and Major-General Hugh L. Scott, a member of President Wilson's Commission to Russia. There are probably no men who can appreciate more the value of the work of the Y. M. C. A., largely because they are right on the ground as leaders in touch with every phase of army work and also because of their eminent ability in being among the foremost leaders of the two great Anglo-Saxon countries. Here is what The Right Honorable David Lloyd George has to say:

"Wherever I go I hear nothing but good of the work of the Young Men's Christian Association and we owe it a very deep debt of gratitude. Whatever legal duties may be imposed upon us as citizens, there will always be plenty for voluntary effort to do. Therefore, I am glad to see the work which the Association is doing throughout the country."

General Pershing is quoted as follows: "The work now being done by the Y. M. C. A. for the comfort and entertainment of our soldiers in France is very important. As an organization, its moral influence is highly beneficial. It performs a real service that makes for contentment. The Y. M. C. A. has won its place by unselfish personal devotion to the soldiers' welfare and deserves staunch support by our people at home."

Field Marshal Haig gives this endorsement: "No one can be long in France or England without realizing the immense value of the Young Men's Christian Association and the constant extension of its activities itself testifies to the high regard in which it is held by our soldiers."

"I hope that the Association will make as rapid progress in the future as it has done in the past."

After his trip through Russia and the Balkans Major-General Scott referred to the Y. M. C. A. as follows:

"Every idea that reaches the Russian people now will bear fruit—good or evil according to what is sown—for many years to come. It is for this reason that I am deeply interested in the great effort which is being made to raise a large sum for the prosecution of the work of the Young Men's Christian Association in Russia. It appeals to me as an American, as a soldier and as a Christian; it will help the Russians and it will also help us."

Monett now has a rock pile on which the city prisoners are allowed to exercise their muscle while serving their time.

Mrs. Clifford Purdy left Tuesday evening for Lawton, Okla., to spend the winter with her husband, Sergeant-major Purdy.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

Sunday, November 4.
Subject, Defeat Through Drunkenness. 1 Kings 20:1-21.

Golden Text: Let not him that girdeth on his armor boast himself as he that putteth it off. 1 Kings 20:11.

This week we go back to an event nearly 150 years before the time of Abaz, whose history commenced our present series of Old Testament lessons. It will, therefore, be necessary to concentrate attention almost entirely on this topic as a lesson on temperance, without being much concerned with its historical connection, though it is necessary to have this clearly before us.

Perhaps about 907 B. C., and a little after the return of Elijah to public work (19:19-21.)
